Unemployment Claims Increase, Living Costs Remain High, Labor Dep't Reports

WASHINGTON (AP)—Unemployment was still on the upswing in mid-February while the cost of living continued to hover around near record levels in January, the government reported Friday.

The Labor Department said the number of persons claiming unemployment insurance rose again during the week ending Feb. 13 to a 2,179,000 total, the highest since Feb. 1, 1950.

Department officials said the increase was due partly to administrative factors. The new total was almost double that of a year ago.

The department also said initial claims—notice of unemployment—rose slightly last week to a total of 324,000, an increase of 5,386 above the previous week. The number of initial claims had been dropping for five weeks.

The department's Bureau of Labor Statistics said living costs, spurred by soaring coffee and pork prices, rose three-tenths of 1 percent in January to fall just short of the October record level.

The bureau said its index in mid-January stood at 115.2 per cent of 1947-49 average prices. Bureau Director Ewan Clague predicted the February index will remain near the January level.

The Agriculture Department meanwhile reported that prices farmers received for crops and livestock fell four-tenths of 1 percent in the month ended Feb. 15 and are now 2 percent below a year ago. The drop followed two consecutive months of farm price gains.

Mr. Halbersleben said it is now indicated no other Sahara mine will be closed. He said Sahara 7 definitely is not being abandoned.

Sahara Announces Temporary Closing Of No. 7 Mine

Notices of temporary closing of Sahara 7 mine were posted at the mine Friday afternoon. The mine employs about 150 men.

Paul Halbersleben, general superintendent of the Sahara Coal Company said the closing was due to the present unsettled conditions in the coal market.

Inroads of substitute fuels into the coal markets have been reducing the market over the nation for the past several years. Curtailment of some industrial plant activities and a rather warm winter are other contributing factors.

Mr. Halbersleben said it is now indicated no other Sahara mine will be closed. He said Sahara 7 definitely is not being abandoned.

Some non-productive work is being done at Sahara 16 in preparing the mine for better production at a later date, and existing market will provide operations at other Sahara properties, it is indicated.

At 1:15 p. m. a grass fire was extinguished in the 800 block of North Granger street.

The truck made a run at 1:30 p. m. to the Claude Hargrave residence in Dorris Heights, where the fire also was getting close to property.

Ask Eisenhower To Shelve New Farm Program

Economic Committee Urges Action in 'Current Recession'

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House-Senate Economic Committee said Friday night President Eisenhower's proposed flexible farm price support program should be shelved for the "current recession."

The committee, in a report on its month-long hearings on the President's economic report, also suggested a possible change in administration tax policies and called for a "reservoir" of public works projects in case times get worse.

It said Mr. Eisenhower's program of flexible supports may have "long-range merits" but warned that putting them into effect now "may actually place the farm family in a worse position in the short run."

The recommendation is expected to give fresh ammunition to the congressional farm bloc which is getting set to fight to extend the present system of rigid high price pegs on basic crops.

Use Word "Recession"
The committee also recommended a delay in putting into effect the "modernized" parity formula for figuring "fair" farm prices on four crops—corn, wheat, cotton and peanuts—still under the "old" parity formula. The cash support level of these four crops would be less under the "modernized" formula.

Mr. Eisenhower has recommended that the present mandatory supports at 90 per cent of "fair price" parity on corn, wheat, rice, peanuts and cotton be replaced by flexible props that could be adjusted between 75 and 90 per cent of parity in line with supplies.

The Republican-dominated joint committee used the term "recession" to describe the present economic state of the nation. Mr. Eisenhower avoided use of the word in his economic report to Congress last month.

Demos Ask Tax Relief
The Democratic members charged in a "supplementary" statement that the administration has been "glossing over" the economic decline. They struck out at administration tax policies as "the trickle down theory" and called for an immediate boost of $200 in the present $600 income tax exemption.

The Republican majority said the President is expected to ask Congress for tax relief for "middle and lower income" groups if unemployment continues to rise. They said tax policies should be "flexible" because "the situation today is unsettled."

Irvin Outlines Organization for Red Cross Drive

A luncheon meeting at which Gene Irvin of Harrisburg, county chairman for the annual Red Cross fund drive to be held in March, explained the organization of the county, was held yesterday noon at Schriener's cafe.

Kickoff breakfasts for workers will be held in Harrisburg and Eldorado, and possibly other places. Workers then will go out into the county and seek funds to support the giant Red Cross program, the biggest here outside of possible disaster being for the blood program and services to the armed forces.

Irvin, in explaining the organization setup for the county, said there would be definite organizations in Harrisburg, Eldorado and Carrier Mills, with the smaller townships linked together. Mrs. Bill Oglesby of Galatia heads the township group, Henry C. Dempsey, assisted by Fred Wunderlich, heads the Harrisburg organization, Harry Fife the Carrier Mills group and Louis Rodgers the Eldorado drive. Serving in an advisory capacity to the drive chairman will be William Hopkins of Harrisburg, Loren Dallas of Carrier Mills, Bruce Burnett of Eldorado and Herman Lambert of Harrisburg.

Extinguish Three Grass Fires

Three grass fires, two of which were serious threats to property, were extinguished by the fire department yesterday.

All calls came within one hour's time. First, at 12:30 p. m., was in the 300 block of West 6th St. It was getting close to buildings when extinguished.

At 1:15 p. m. a grass fire was extinguished in the 800 block of North Granger street.

The truck made a run at 1:30 p. m. to the Claude Hargrave residence in Dorris Heights, where the fire also was getting close to property.

Coffee Will Remain High, Women Back From Brazil Report

WASHINGTON (AP)—Four American housewives have returned from Brazil with bad news for coffee drinkers—coffee prices will go still higher and won't come down for three or four years.

The women, all officials of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, said their trip convinced them the high price of coffee is due to increased world consumption, the crop-damaging frost in Brazil and some increase in Brazilian labor costs.

"There is no coffee being held back in Brazil for purposes of forcing up the price to our knowledge," said Mrs. Theodore Chapman, Jerseyville, Ill., chairman of the group.

Mrs. Chapman is a former university instructor and first vice president of the GFWC. Her companions were Mrs. Zia Woodford Schroeder, Grosse Pointe, Mich., lawyer and GFWC international affairs chairman; Mrs. Carl E. Swanbeck, Huron, Ohio, dietitian and home economist, and GFWC home chairman; and Mrs. Gilbert F. Loeb, Waterville, Maine, radio news commentator and GFWC consumer chairman.

Witnesses Tell Of Geo. Veatch Death in Mine

George Veatch, mine inspector, was killed by being run over Feb. 24 by a motor trip while working in Sahara 7, a jury verdict said at the inquest into his death, held last night at the court house.

Three miners testified at the inquest, including the brother of the dead mine inspector. They were James Edward Veatch, mine boss, Marshall "Doc" Foster and Otto Gibbs. Foster and Gibbs, along with John David Bramlett, were on a runaway motor that ran over Veatch.

James Veatch told of seeing the accident, about 11 p. m. Wednesday, and of first believing it was someone besides his brother that was run over by the motor trip that failed to make a hill and started back down toward the Veatches at an uncontrollable speed.

Foster told of starting north with the motor pulling two cars of rock dust and a duster. He said the trip got almost to the top of the hill and the motor stopped. It started back down the hill, he continued, stating that he and Gibbs were on the front and couldn't jump off. However, Bramlett, who unsuccessfully tried to brake the trip, was able to jump off before the crash at the end of the hill with another motor.

Veatch was found beneath the runaway motor. Gibbs said the hill was about a quarter of a mile long and was steep. Foster and Gibbs were still on the motor when it crashed and Foster was knocked out by a timber.

SALINE COUNTY OIL REPORT: 16 Drilling Operations Now in Saline County

By BOB SKEELS

Saline county is rapidly becoming one of the most active drilling areas in the Tri-State Oil basin, with 16 operations going on at the present.

Probably the most interesting test right now, is the Slagter Producing Company No. 1 L. B. Hale, NE SW NE, 22-8S-6E, a wildcat one mile southeast of Raleigh that is drilling today at 2945 after successfully setting a whipstock at 2410. In another 50 feet, the company should have by-passed its tools lost in the old hole at 2995. This wildcat is a good three miles from other production and could very easily open a new oil pool in Saline county.

Around the Ashland, just northwest of Eldorado, Ashland Oil and Refining is cleaning out and testing the Aux Vases sandy lime 2925-31 on its No. 2 Victor Suttner, in 7-8S-7E. The test swabbed two barrels of oil per hour natural and after a 10 quart shot of nitro, swabbed five barrels per hour. A drill stem test of the oil zone gassed in 30 minutes and recovered 180 feet of clean oil, 60 feet of oil cut mud with a bottom hole pressure of 1165 pounds per square inch.

Carter Oil is testing oil saturation in the Tar Springs sand 2216-32, after removing alloy (soft pipe) on its No. 2 Velma Turner. The Hardinsburg sand 2349-57 swabbed around 100 barrels of oil and 62 barrels of water per day after a 2000 gallon fracturing treatment.

McCarthy Faces Controls on Red-Hunt Activities

Senator Announces New Investigation Of Army Monday

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy faced a threat of new controls on his Red-hunting activities today as an aftermath of his angry feud with Army Secretary Robert T. Stevens.

Although the Wisconsin Republican seemed ready for an armed truce with Stevens over treatment of Army witnesses, he announced his permanent investigating subcommittee would launch a new investigation of the Army Monday.

The Army appeared to be co-operating. It promised to produce two privates McCarthy wants to question about whether they signed loyalty oaths when they put on the uniform.

But even as McCarthy declared that his fight with Stevens was "over as far as I am concerned," threats to his powers of investigation came from:

1. The Senate Republican leadership, which ordered a survey of the procedures of investigating committees.

2. His Republican colleagues on the Senate Permanent Investigating Subcommittee, who indicated they would cut down the number of one-man hearings like the one at which McCarthy allegedly "abused" a brigadier general and stirred Stevens to protest.

3. Subcommittee Democrats, led by veteran Sen. John L. McClellan of Arkansas, who Friday forced McCarthy to give more notice of hearings.

4. The White House, where President Eisenhower took a hand in Stevens' statement Thursday, implying criticism of McCarthy's treatment of Army witnesses.

There were signs that GOP congressional leaders believe Mr. Eisenhower wants them to take steps to curtail McCarthy's authority.

At a hurriedly-called meeting Friday, the powerful Republican Senate Policy Committee announced it will launch a sweeping inquiry into the methods of investigation of Senate committees. Chairman Homer R. Ferguson (Mich.) said specifically McCarthy's group would be included in the study.

PMW Local Union 165 Takes Contributions For Salvation Army

Members of Local Union 165 of the Progressive Mine Workers of America are standing at the banks today for the Harrisburg post of the Salvation Army.

The union is doing this as its contribution to the Salvation Army. Today is pay-day for the miners and they are being asked to give their donations after they cash their checks.

The union members, of course, will take contributions from anybody else who wants to give one.

Planes Search Black Hills for Missing Convair

RAPID CITY, S. D. (AP)—Air Force planes and privately-owned light planes searched the snowy Black Hills today for a Convair which disappeared in a storm with nine persons aboard.

Paratroopers were aboard the Air Force craft, and weather prospects favored the search. The skies were clear and there was little wind. A light snow fell during the night, however.

Search mission headquarters were set up here overnight by Capt. Scott Johnson after he made a hazardous flight from Lowry Air Force Base at Denver, Colo., regional air rescue headquarters.

The 40-passenger Convair, flying from Los Angeles to Minneapolis, carried six passengers and a crew of three. It was supposed to land at Casper, Wyo., Friday, but the airport was weathered in and the pilot, Capt. M. Ray Cawley of Bountiful, Utah, elected to fly on to Rapid City.

Dwight Karnes Heads County Teachers' Group

Dwight Karnes, Logan school principal, was elected president of the Saline County Teachers' association at the spring meeting held yesterday at Harrisburg Township high school. Mr. Karnes succeeds Milton Kane, who teaches near Eldorado.

Elected vice president was Cecil Fulkerson, principal of Raleigh school. Raymond Rann of Carrier Mills was elected to a two-year term as secretary-treasurer and will continue in this office until next year.

R. Dale Wilson, county superintendent of schools, said that teachers seemed highly pleased with yesterday's institute, which was informative in nature.

The principal address by Irving Pearson, executive secretary of the Illinois Education association, was "Viewing Europe Educationally." Then followed discussion groups, with the following leaders:

Topic, Recognition of schools and the improvement of educational standards, Otis Keeler, assistant superintendent of public instruction, leader.

Topic, School legislation, new and proposed, J. Lester Buford, Mt. Vernon school superintendent, leader.

Topic, Teacher retirement, Aubrey J. Holmes, executive secretary of the Teachers' Retirement System, leader.

Topic, The work of the IEA and its relationship to teacher welfare and teacher tenure, Stewart Williams, field worker for the IEA, leader.

Install Four New Positions on Phone Co. Toll Switchboard

General Telephone Company of Illinois equipment installers have just completed installation of four additional positions of toll switchboard in Harrisburg, it was announced today by Millard H. Lynch, local manager for the company. A total of 1800 hours of labor was required for this installation.

Nineteen positions of switchboard are now in service in our Harrisburg exchange," Lynch stated. "The additional switchboard facilities were required in order that we may continue to keep pace with the ever-increasing demand for telephone service in this area," Lynch added, "and the additions are a part of the continuing expansion and improvement program of the General Telephone Company of Illinois throughout the area in which we operate."

Four Killed In Fiery Crash; 2 Others Burned

Air Force Officials Refuse to Comment On 'Buzzing' Report

HUNTINGDON, Tenn. (AP)—Eye witnesses said today the pilot of an Air Force Flying Boxcar "buzzed" a house town before striking a court house flag pole and crashing to a fiery death with three crew members.

The twin-engine C119 grazed an outlying house and on the return trip sheared off the flag pole before it burst into flames and hurled wreckage for a mile along the main street.

Gasoline spewing from the flaming, box-like fuselage burned two persons on the ground, one of them critically, before the main wreckage crashed on the outskirts of town.

Mayor Robert Murray and Justice of the Peace J. Herman Williams said the pilot, 1st Lt. Jack C. Jenkins, 24, of Huntingdon, "buzzed low" over this county seat of 3,500 population.

Officials of Lawson Air Force Base at Ft. Benning, near Columbus, Ga., where the plane was based, refused to comment on this report. They said the plane crashed on a routine training mission.

Mayor Murray said the tail of the plane struck the home of Eddie Jones a half-mile from the Carroll County Court House on its first low pass over town.

The pilot's mother, Mrs. Mabel Jenkins, was too upset to talk to reporters but her niece, Joe Patterson, denied the family had any idea that Jenkins might "buzz" the town.

"She didn't even know he was in the vicinity," Mrs. Patterson said.

The Air Force identified the other dead as 2nd Lt. John C. Peachey, 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Peachey, of Present Ark.; A2C David A. Probus, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon C. Probus, Hammond, Ind.; and A2C Frank Edith Levy, 24, son of Mrs. Mary Edith Levy Wineland, LaCassine Refuge, Lake Arthur, La.

Rites at Ridgway Monday 9 a. m. For George Aydt

The funeral of George Aydt, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Aydt of Ridgway who was drowned in Big Lake Thursday afternoon when the boat capsized while fishing, will be Monday at 9 a. m. at St. Joseph's Catholic church in Ridgway. Rev. William Wiggman will conduct the service, and burial will be in the St. Joseph cemetery with rites by the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The rosary will be said today at the T. B. Smith funeral home, and the Knights of Columbus will be in charge, and the rosary will be said Sunday at 7 p. m. with the Holy Name society in charge.

The body now lies in state at the T. B. Smith funeral home in Ridgway and will remain there until funeral time.

George Aydt served four years in the Navy and spent three and a half years of that time in Yokosuka, Japan, as a chief crime investigator.

He was captured and wounded on a commission in Korea. For this he was granted the Purple Heart. Mr. Aydt attended the St. Joseph grade school, the Ridgway Community high school, Kemper Military Institution in Missouri and the St. Louis university.

He was a member of the American Legion, the V. F. W., Ridgway Lions club, St. Joseph's Catholic church, the Holy Name society and the Knights of Columbus.

Historical Society To Meet Tuesday

The regular meeting of the Saline County Historical society will be held at the Mitchell-Carnegie Library at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, March 2. Those attending are asked to use the side door to the club room.

The chairman of the newly appointed committees will give short reports on expected accomplishments for the year.

Mrs. J. D. Morse will give a short history of St. Patrick and St. Patrick's Day.

The main address will be given by Tommy Davenport. He spent several months in Europe while in service and will talk on the countries visited and his impressions gained by contact with the peoples. His address will be accompanied by colored slides.

The committee in charge of the social hour is composed of Mrs. Ray Altmeir, Mrs. Louis Aaron, Mrs. J. D. Morse, and Miss Eliza Tyndall.

A new year for the society begins with the March meeting. Visitors are welcome and urged to attend.

ODDS ARE HIGH—These triplet female calves, born on Merle W. Wygand's farm near Somerset, Pa., are somewhat of a rarity. Records reveal that the odds are 40,000 to one against triplet calves of the same sex being born. The calves are less than one week old.

Nitrogen on Wheat

With mild open winter, wheat has made very good growth and, too, much nitrogen will add greatly to more root and top growth. Clovers seeded in wheat under these conditions will be handi-capped and may die unless favor-able weather, especially early sum-mer rains stimulate it after wheat is taken off and even before wheat harvest.

An application of about 20 pounds of nitrogen should be enough to stimulate wheat yield near maximum and not hurt young clover. Ammonia sulfate contains about 20.6 percent nitrogen per hundred pounds, therefore, 100 lbs. ammonia sulfate would meet the requirement. Ammonia nitrate is 33 percent nitrogen and would be heavy if applied at the rate of 100 lbs. per acre. On thin stands of wheat with poor growth, more nitrogen may be applied than on heavy, thick growth of wheat at this time of year.

Your corn picker snapping rolls need to be sharp to prevent clogging.

Aberdeen-Angus Sale March 15

Will Be Held at Frank Russell
Farm; 74 Lots

The second annual sale of Angus breeding cattle will be offered to buyers of several states and Illinois counties. The cattle are extra good and should suit most buyers. The most outstanding animals from local herds will be offered for sale. Some imported breeding animals are listed.

There are 74 lots. Several cows, some with calves, and some close to calving. Many outstanding heifers and thirteen well-bred bulls with good lines and pedigrees.

All animals are TB and Bangs tested. The animals are well fitted for show and in good condition for the sale.

Buyers from out of state attended last year's sale. This sale is attracting many interested buyers as proven by inquiries received to date.

You may obtain a catalogue by writing Eugene Reynolds, Route 1, Harrisburg, who is secretary of the sale. All interested cattlemen are invited. Most Angus breeders consider the sale their "show window for their herds." They are selling some of their best for advertising and proof of quality of their herds.

Frank Russell has a nice place to hold this auction. Well drained lots, plenty of parking space, and attractive grounds and buildings.
A good hard road from Harrisburg to Benton passes the farm, making the trip accessible by car for buyers anywhere in the state.

We feel that the Angus breeders have done much to improve the quality of beef cattle of this area and have something good to offer in this sale.

Farm Bureau to Hold Policy Execution Meetings

The purpose of the meetings are to explain resolutions adopted by the elected voting delegates of the Illinois Agricultural Association at the 39th Annual Meeting held in the Sherman hotel, Chicago, November 16-19, 1953. These resolutions became effective upon their adoption and will continue in effect until, and unless modified by the voting delegates at future annual or special meetings of the association.

Schedule of Meetings is as follows:

Galatia—High school, Thursday,
March 11, 1954, 7:00 P. M.

Eldorado — Washington school,
Tuesday, March 9, 1954, 7:00 P. M.

Harrisburg—City hall Friday,
March 12, 1954, 7:00 P. M.

Somerset—School, Wednesday,
March 10, 1954, 7:00 P. M.

All farmers, Farm Bureau members or otherwise, any person or civic group interested in these policies are cordially invited to attend at least one of these meetings.

OUNCE OF CURE PREFERRED

Good care is better than drugs for control of baby chick diseases, says Ed Crook, Wisconsin university. He offers these hints: Get chicks from a reliable firm; put them in a clean house; keep new chicks segregated; don't visit your neighbor's flock or let him visit yours; vaccinate where practical, and if trouble starts, get an accurate diagnosis before taking costly measures to stop trouble.—Capper's Farmer.

Smokey Says:

There will be less forest fires when people think first!

Hog Vaccination Program Should Be Planned Now

See your veterinarian now to work out a hog cholera and crysipelas vaccination program to prevent losses in your baby pig crop.
Dr. P. D. Beamer of the University of Illinois College of Veterinary Medicine says that your veterinarian is the best judge of which hog cholera vaccine you should use and when to use it to immunize your baby pigs.

If you have had crysipelas in your herd, you should plan to vaccinate for this killer before your pigs are two weeks old. The vaccine is not 100 percent effective, but it will usually protect your pigs from four to six months, or until they reach market age.

If you have had crysipelas before and don't vaccinate your new litters now, some of the pigs may die. Others may be stunted and unthrifty and will be condemned or docked at the market later.

As further protection from disease, Dr. Beamer recommends the following practices:

1. Follow the McLean county system of swine sanitation.
2. Provide warm, dry quarters, free from drafts, to protect your pigs from cold, wet weather.
3. Get replacement stock from known disease-free herds.

Crop Reporting Service Steps Up Hog, Cattle Surveys

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—The State Crop Reporting Service announced today it is stepping up its reporting service on hog and cattle numbers and marketing.

The crop service announced it will make quarterly livestock surveys to get information on sow farrows and hog and cattle mar-ketings. In the past the service has made only semi-annual surveys showing sow farrowings, and cattle, sheep and chicken numbers.

The crop service said the new survey is necessary to measure changes in marketing patterns and enable producers to gauge more accurately the needs of the market.

It said one out of about 20 farmers will receive the first questionnaire on the new survey. The crop service asked the farmers to cooperate in answering the questions.

March 16 Final Date for Corn Loans

The final date for accepting corn loans for the 1953 crop of the crib may be sealed, the sample graded and loan papers executed not later than March 31, it was stated today by Raymond Alvey, chairman of the Saline County ASC (formerly PMA) county committee. Purchase agreements may be accepted up to March 31.

Anyone interested in a corn loan or a purchase agreement are asked to call at the office in the city hall, Harrisburg, and full details will be explained.

Tuesday Club Meets In New Charles Yost Home

The Equality Tuesday club met Feb. 23 at the home of Mrs. Charles Yost. Mr. and Mrs. Yost have just completed their new home in Equality; therefore, the club was honored by being asked to "christen" the lovely modern quarters by holding its annual potluck supper and social program there.

The club presented the hostess with a potted plant.

After a bountiful supper, the following members enjoyed a social hour: Mesdames J. B. Reed, B. D. Barnett, David Sanks, Walter Sutton, F. E. Smith, M. Q. Maas, Ira Adams, William Warner, J. A. Womac, Charles Yost, and two guests, little David Alan Warner and Mrs. Graydon Davidson of Eldorado.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. B. D. Barnett on March 9. Mrs. David Sanks will be in charge.

The monthly meeting of the Methodist Men of Gallatin county was held at Omaha. Robert Smith of Carmi was the speaker. Those attending from Equality were George Guard, L. H. Hale, George Ferrell, Fred Prather and Rev. W. R. Warner.

The Alpha circle of the Presbyterian Women's association met with Mrs. T. R. McIntyre Wednesday afternoon. The lesson, "Where'er the Sun," was presented by Mrs. Bob Barnett and Mrs. Anna Duvall led the devotion from the book of Acts. Those present were Mesdames David Beverley, Anna Duvall, F. E. Smith, J. A. Womac, William Williams, Bob Barnett and T. R. McIntyre. Delightful refreshments including a salad course and coffee were served.

Mrs. Sophia Bullard was hostess Wednesday afternoon to the Fidelity circle of the Presbyterian Women's association. Mrs. Ted Moore led the devotion and Mrs. David Sanks presented the study of "Where'er the Sun." Mrs. Walter Sutton presented the year book of prayer which was followed by a short business session. The hostess served lemon chiffon pie and coffee to the following members: Mesdames Roy Grater, Mattie Sanks, Edith Sanks, William Davenport, David Sanks, Walter Sutton and Ted Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Thompson and daughter, Mrs. Harry Naas, are visiting relatives in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rushing and their daughter, Beulah of Carbondale, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Guard and son, George Jr.

Cumberland Presbyterian Volunteer Class Meets

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Riegel entertained the members of the Volunteer class of Union Chapel Cumberland Presbyterian church Saturday evening.

Dean Guye gave the invocation and Mrs. Grant Riegel presented the devotion for the evening. A short business meeting was conducted by the president, Paul Drott, and everyone present signed a "get well" greeting to be sent to the class teacher, Grover Clayton.

Bill Edwards showed colored moving pictures of Florida taken during Mr. and Mrs. Edwards' recent vacation.

Refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Jackson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Drott and children, Mr. and Mrs. Bill McElrath and children, Mr. and Mrs. James Allen and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Guye and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Riegel and son, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Holland and son, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen and son, Rev. and Mrs. Vola Sittig and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Edwards and children of Marion, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Riegel and children.

The March meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Cash of Toledo, Ohio, were in Harrisburg Thursday attending the funeral of Mrs. Cash's cousin, Mrs. Thomas (Berniece) Swan, whose funeral and burial was at the Bankston Fork Baptist church. They visited with their mother, Mrs. Eva Hamilton, of the Bankston community.

Marion Pilot is Killed in Crash

NEWBURGH, N. Y. (AP)—Two Air Force officers were killed Friday night when a P-3 jet pursuit plane crashed shortly after taking off from Stewart Air Force Base near here.

The Air Force at Wright-Patterson Field, Dayton, Ohio, identified the victims as Capt. George V. Stambaugh, 35, son of Ira V. Stambaugh, Whittier, Calif., and Capt. James R. Miller, 29, son of Warner W. Miller, Marion, Ill. The plane was on a return trip to Wright-Patterson field when it crashed about one mile from the Stewart base.

Herbert Hoover made his fortune as a mining engineer in Asia, Africa and Europe.

The principal features of the proposed plan are:

1. Clerks and carriers would be paid $210 more a year as a starting salary; and their maximum rates increased by $100 or about 5 cents an hour.

2. The time needed by most employees to advance from the minimum to the maximum salary rate for their job would be reduced in most cases by two years.

3. More adequate pay differentials are provided for employees with higher skills, supervisors and managerial personnel who, at present, have slight incentive to rise above routine work levels.

4. The salary of no individual employee will be decreased as a result of the application of this new plan.

5. Supervisors, who at present have single rates for their jobs, would be given the opportunity to progress within a rate range.

Calendar of Meetings

Regular meeting of the Saline County Historical society at Mitchell-Carnegie library at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday. Please use the side door to the club room.

Births

To Mr. and Mrs. Ed Demien, Elgin, Ill., a baby girl weighing seven pounds, 8 3/4 ounces, born Feb. 26. Mrs. Demien is the former Evenelle Hamel of Harrisburg.

Postmaster A. M. Hetherington today endorsed the postal pay increase and incentive plan recommended to the House Post Office and Civil Service committee on Feb. 16 by Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield.

"This plan," Mr. Hetherington said, "provides equal pay for equal work. It opens the door of opportunity to postal employees who merit promotions based on improved performance."

"While fourth-class postmasters and rural carriers are not now included in this plan, their jobs, I understand, are to be studied later."

The principal features of the proposed plan are:

1. Clerks and carriers would be paid $210 more a year as a starting salary; and their maximum rates increased by $100 or about 5 cents an hour.

2. The time needed by most employees to advance from the minimum to the maximum salary rate for their job would be reduced in most cases by two years.

3. More adequate pay differentials are provided for employees with higher skills, supervisors and managerial personnel who, at present, have slight incentive to rise above routine work levels.

4. The salary of no individual employee will be decreased as a result of the application of this new plan.

5. Supervisors, who at present have single rates for their jobs, would be given the opportunity to progress within a rate range.

James Collier, 82, resident of Lusk community north of Golconda, died Friday night in the Rosiclar hospital.

The body will remain at the Buchanan funeral home in Golconda until funeral time which will be Sunday at 1 p. m. in Duttons Chapel. Rev. Roy Reynolds will conduct the service, and burial will be in the Carter cemetery.

Demos Reject Mitchell Dinner Ban on McCarthy

CHICAGO (AP)—Prominent Irish Democrats indicated today they won't join party Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell's refusal to "break bread" with Sen. Joseph McCarthy at a St. Patrick's Day dinner.

Mitchell took his stand Friday when he sent a letter to the Irish Fellowship Club of Chicago announcing he won't be on hand to dine with and listen to the Wisconsin Republican on St. Pat's Day March 17.

"I will not break bread with a man who has borne false witness against over 30,000,000 Americans," Mitchell's letter said.

Richard J. Daley, chairman of the Cook County Democratic Central committee, commented that McCarthy's presence wouldn't keep him from the dinner.

"I'll be at the banquet at the speakers' table to honor a great people, a great saint, and a great day," he said.

"I wouldn't have picked McCarthy for speaker, but this is a country of free speech."

John J. Kelly, chairman of the club's board and a Democrat, said "I shall say nothing on behalf of the club."

"But for myself," he added, "I will say there is no politics in the selection of the speaker. We've had Democrats before—including former President Truman."

Other club officials and members were sparring in their comment, but indicated no plans to follow Mitchell's boycott.

In Washington McCarthy said "It won't hurt my dinner at all not to have him there."

His statement about McCarthy bearing "false witness" referred to the senator's Lincoln Day charge that the Democratic party "bears a label corroded with Communism."

Bricker to Continue Fight On Treaties

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John W. Bricker promised today to renew his battle next year for a change in the Constitution giving Congress stronger rein over the president's powers to make international treaties.

The disappointed but undaunted Ohio Republican refused to give up his long fight after the Senate dashed final hope for such a constitutional amendment at this session. The result was a hard-won victory for President Eisenhower who had openly opposed Bricker's proposal.

Sen. Walter F. George (D-Ga.), whose substitute for the Bricker Amendment failed by only one vote to win the necessary two-thirds margin for Senate approval, agreed "there will be a stronger amendment before the Senate" in future years. He said "it would have been easier to dispose of this matter" if the Senate had approved his somewhat milder substitute.

George's proposal would have prevented executive agreements negotiated by the president with foreign governments from becoming domestic law of the United States without legislation of both houses of Congress. Executive agreements—do not require congressional action at present.

The month-long "great debate" over treaty powers came to a dramatic photo-finish Friday night in a 60-31 vote in favor of George's proposal. It failed because 61 votes were needed to send the proposal to the House as a constitutional amendment.

Rev. Dale Harmon Attends Methodist Meeting on Urban Life

Eight Methodist ministers from southern Illinois attended the Convocation on Urban Life in Columbus, Ohio, Feb. 24-26. They are Rev. Wendell Robinson, Carbondale; Rev. Dale Harmon, Harrisburg; Rev. Walter A. Smith, Flora; Rev. E. M. Dycus, Lebanon; Rev. William Sims, Benton; Rev. Maurice Winn, East St. Louis; Rev. E. M. Leckrone, Belleville; and Rev. Stephen Phillips, Collinsville.

Twelve hundred clergy and lay-delegates attended this convention.

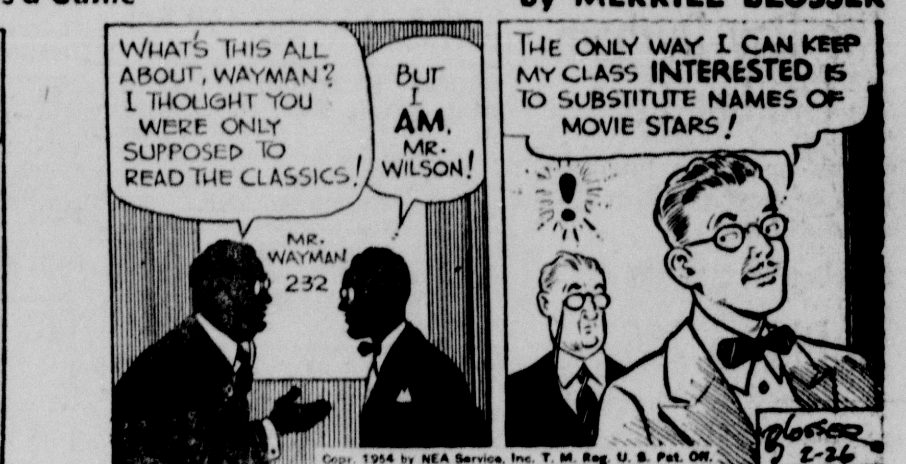

Practical studies were made of city life and the work of the downtown city Protestant church. Committees had gathered information for a year. This convocation was sponsored jointly by the Board of Missions and the Council of Bishops. Bishop Frederick B. Newell of New York acted as chairman. He states that, "No more significant meeting of Methodists has been held in the past quarter century."

Tommy Henrich, New York Yankee outfielder, was nicknamed "Old Reliable."

Republicans Line Up Behind Cut In Excise Taxes

WASHINGTON — Republicans were reported lining up today behind a one billion dollar excise tax cut proposal aimed at taking the steam out of a Democratic effort to boost personal income tax exemptions.

The report came as the GOP-controlled joint congressional economic committee said the "current recession" may force changes in President Eisenhower's tax policies.

The plan to cut excise taxes, sponsored by House Speaker Joseph W. Martin Jr., (R-Mass.), is expected to come up for discussion at a secret session of the House Ways & Means Committee Monday.

The committee completed work on its big tax revision bill Friday but did not put it to a formal vote. The measure would provide about $1,300,000,000 in tax relief for business and individuals, some 50 million dollars more than the President proposed.

Will Not Buck Martin Plan

A high GOP congressional leader, who refused use of his name, said Republican strategy is to act on legislation cutting excise taxes before taking up the overall tax revision measure. He said it is believed this may halt a Democratic drive to boost income tax exemptions.

Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey Friday asserted that the government "can't stand a loss of revenue." But there were indications the administration would not buck Martin's excise tax-cut plan too strenuously since it would involve less revenue loss than the Democratic proposal.

Democrats, led by Sen. Walter F. George (D-Ga.), have proposed that tax exemptions be raised this year from $600 to at least $700 with a loss of revenue estimated at 2,300,000,000. George wants to lift the exemption to $1,000 next year.

The Republican majority said the President is "expected" to ask Congress to provide tax relief for middle and lower income groups if unemployment continues upward. Tax policy, they said, must be "flexible" and "the situation today is unsettled."

Seeks $20,000 For Death of Son

A father seeks $20,000 in the death of his son, victim of a bicycle-auto collision.

The father is Raymond Williams of north of Eldorado, administrator of the estate of James Wesley Williams, deceased, who was 15 at the time of his death last November. Defendant is Joseph Francis Mathieu.

The complaint, filed in circuit court by Atty. W. W. Damron and Atty. Joe M. Butler, says the boy was riding his bike on Route 142 four miles north of Eldorado around 5:20 p. m. Nov. 3, when it figured in a collision with Mathieu's auto.

The lad died in Ferrell hospital Nov. 5.

Asks $250 and Costs Result of Crash

Clem Nash seeks $250 and costs from Frank Stout as a result of a crash of their autos in Eldorado April 21, 1953. The complaint was filed in circuit court by Atty. Harry L. McCabe.

Marratt sighed in the darkness and reluctantly got up. He rolled big shoulders together, clamped jaws on his resolve and, putting behind him the things he could not change, dragged his big-rowel-ed spurs to the porch's screening door. "Is there a horse still braying the grass out yonder?"

"If there is he's bein' quiet about it," Kid Boots said when she left, took an extra bray with her. You want me go after it?"

"No," Marratt said, "I want you to stay right where you're at."

"That's the kind of a job I can stand a whole lot of. Rockin' my time away an' bein' paid for it."

"I'm riding into Bella Loma. Any visitors you may get while I'm gone will be trespassers to be dealt with according to the degree of their hostility. And don't be surprised unless you're hankering to get planted."

"Expectin' anyone special?"

"Fellow named Gainer might decide to pay us a call. He kind of imagines he's got an interest in this outfit."

"He just imagines it, eh?"

"I'm keeping this place unencumbered."

"What about Wineglass?"

Marratt said, softly, "What about it?"

"From the talk I've picked up they been usin' this spread. That all right with you?"

"When it isn't," Marratt said, "I'll make sure you're informed."

The lights of Bella Loma threw a lonesome shine across the dust of its single street when Marratt rode in and pulled up near the general store. Frailey's second-floor office and dispensary were reached by an uncovered outside staircase.

He took the stairs quietly, having no way of knowing what he might be about to run into. But the doctor was alone. He came to the door with a book in his hand, seemed a bit surprised but invited him in.

When the door was closed he said, "Nothing wrong, is there?"

"Nothing a couple lead pills won't cure. I came after those checks."

Frailey, in shirt-sleeves, went over and got a cigar from a case in his coat. With a sharp little knife he amputated the end he planned to put in his mouth. "Air in this country plays hob with these things," he growled, carefully licking frayed edges of wrapper. "Naome tell you I had them?"

"I don't want to get rough but if you make me I'll take 'em."

"Reckon at that I'd fare better than I would with Chuk Crafkin," Frailey handed them over. "Mind saying what you want with them?"

"I'd like, if I can, to pull some of the heat off Naome."

Frailey said, "And where do the checks —"

"Crafkin, naturally, is wild to get his hands on them."

"You think he knows about Beck-with's notations?"

"He's going to know about them," Marratt said grimly, "and he's going to know I've got them just as quick as some bar fly can fetch the news. You got any mulchage? You got a sheet of white paper?"

Frailey produced them.

Marratt picked out the check that was the greatest amount of money and, careful to leave the end free which showed Crafkin's endorsement, stuck the other end of it to one side of the paper, lengthwise. "Now, if you've got a marking crayon..."

The doctor got one off his desk and Marratt, making his letters big and black, printed beneath it: "A WARNING TO SKUNKS."

"That won't scare him off," Frailey said. "Put that up in the Red Horse Bar and you've shown this country he's a crook all right but you've lost any chance of ever getting a conviction. He'll tear it up and laugh in your face."

"He'll tear it up," Marratt nodded, "but he won't laugh till he's torn up the rest of them. And while he's trying to do that he won't be bothering Naome."

Days of sadness oft come over us. Tears of silence often flow. Love will always keep you near us. Tho' you left one year ago.

In our hearts your memory lingers. Sweetly, tender, fond, and true. There is not a day, dear Bob, That we do not think of you.

Gone, dear loved one, gone forever.

How we miss your smiling face. But you left to remember.

None on earth can take your place.

We often sit and think of you. Of all the things you'd say or do. And wonder why you had to die. Without a chance to say good-bye.

France May Help Red China Enter UN if It Ends Indochina War

HANOI, Indochina — French Secretary of War Pierre de Chevigne said 40day France might help Communist China enter "the concert of nations" if it agreed to end the Indochina war.

"I believe that arrangements with Red China is not impossible," Chevigne said in a press conference. "We can help her entry into the concert of nations and resume economic relations."

"The whole problem is to know what Russia wants."

Wrather of Mt. Carmel, have set casing on their No. 2 Frank Parker, NE SE NW, 2-8-6e, to test both saturated Palestine sand 1963-93 and Cypress sand 2551-66.

The same operators No. 4 B. F. Lemons, SW NW SE, on the other side of the pool, is drilling below 1870 today with company tools. They set 147 feet of ten inch surface casing.

Disappointing Duster

Two miles east of Eldorado, G. L. Reasor No. 2 James H. Porter, NE NW SE, 23-8-7e, is not doing as well as expected. The Aux Vases lime 2895-2901 was acidized with 3500 gallons of acid, and the well started off swabbing five barrels per hour but within 10 hours had dropped down to less than two barrels per hour. They haven't decided yet what to do, but will probably have to fracture the oil zone.

His No. 3 test on the James H. Porter farm was digging today at 2710 with Q. B. Mitchell's rotary tools of Carmi.

Carter's No. 1 J. R. Davenport, three miles east of Eldorado, near the county line, is drilling at 1667 today with Cy Herndon's tools of Carmi.

Clarence E. Brehm got a disappointing duster this week two miles northwest of Long Branch, in 19-8-7e. It was his No. 1 Clyde E. Kane, SW NW NW, a good two mile wildcard plugged at a total depth of 3325 through McClosky lime. Another hole "opened by mistake."

Shawneetown Beats Thompsonville 77-57 to Win District Tournament

Indians Advance To Regional; Will Meet Eldorado

Shawneetown's Indians took to the warpath last night, scalping a courageous but overpowered Thompsonville quintet, 77-57, to grab the Ridgway district tournament title. Victory brought the Indians a berth in the Mt. Vernon regional, where they will play Eldorado next Wednesday night.

It was the second straight district championship for the Shawneetown crew. Given little chance of repeating this year, the Indians crossed up the dopesters by upsetting Galatia Thursday night and then downing Thompsonville in the championship tussle.

But no one could challenge the Gallatin county club's right to the title after seeing it battle to victory on three consecutive nights. The Indians opened the tournament by tripping Equality, 57-50. Then they pulled a major upset in eliminating Galatia, 59-54. Last night they outman and outshot Thompsonville, 77-57.

Overcome Tigers' Lead

Shawneetown's season record of 12 victories, 12 losses kept them from serious consideration as a finalist. Galatia had beaten the Indians three times during the season by five, 12 and nine points. In the title-deciding game last night, Bob Munday's Tigers got off to a fine start and were ahead 9-2 early in the initial period. With Garrison Newsom leading the way, the Indians commenced to find the range. By the end of the quarter, they had overhauled Thompsonville and established a 15-12 lead. The Tigers rallied shortly after the second opened to knot the score at 18-all, but Newsom caged two quick baskets to give the Indians the lead for keeps. Thompsonville drew within three points of its opponents on three occasions but could never overtake them. Late in the quarter, Shawneetown spurred to a 35-26 halftime advantage. Capitalize Free Shots Bobby Spottsville took over the scoring leadership for the Indians

Limited Tickets at High School for Regional Tournament

There are a limited number of tickets at the Harrisburg Township high school for the Bull Dog-Fairfield regional tournament game at Mt. Vernon Tuesday night, James McKee, athletic business manager at the high school, announced today.

Bull Dogs Drop Final Conference Game to West Frankfort, 68-60

Play Johnston City Tonight, Then in Regional Tuesday

The Harrisburg Bull Dogs sagged in the middle last night to drop their final South Seven basketball game of the season, 68-60, at West Frankfort last night.

Tonight they travel to Johnston City to finish the regular card before entering the Mt. Vernon regional, where they will meet Fairfield at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday.

Last night the Bull Dogs dropped in a couple of quick baskets like pros, do it, and worked the ball around nicely to lead at the end of the first period, 19 to 16. The second and third quarters were awful and the locals came back the last period and played like they wanted to win the game, after all.

Passing Goes Haywire Ronnie Riegel hit for 10 of his 22 points for the evening during the first quarter as the locals kept ahead all the way, at one time

480 Teams Still In Race for Illinois Title

'Little Davids' Complete Play with 215 Eliminated

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—The downstate field for the 1954 Illinois prep basketball championship stood at 480 teams today after 43 district tourney champions were crowned Friday night.

After the "Little Davids" completed district play 215 teams had been eliminated from the field. The 43 district winners plus the runner-up at Coffeen remain in the running for the state crown.

The 60, eight-team regional tournaments begin Monday night.

Outstanding among the new district champs were O'Fallon, Paducah, Mounds Douglas, Hutsonville, Roxana, Carbondale Attucks, Elgin St. Edwards and Argenta.

Meanwhile, La Grange, Quincy, Edwardsville, Cicero Morton, Barrington, Paris, Rockford East, Rockford West, Mount Vernon and Centralia were posting wins in the final weekend of regular play.

O'Fallon pocketed its 28th victory against only one loss in winning the Mascoutah district title. O'Fallon downed Freeburg 70-57.

La Grange Wins

Patoka had a battle with Breese before taking the Breese district title 62-56 for its 22nd win against two losses. High-scoring Mounds Douglas outlasted Cobden 70-39 at Anna-Jonesboro. Mounds Douglas averaged nearly 85 points a game in the tourney.

Hutsonville, a top eastern Illinois team, grabbed the St. Francisville crown by beating the host club 69-46. Roxana won its own district, clipping Bethalto 61-51. Carbondale Attucks also proved an impolite host, downing Alto Pass 68-54 in the Attucks final.

Elgin St. Edwards became district champ by beating Hebron 59-50. Hebron was state champion two years ago.

La Grange, top-ranked quintet in the state all season, closed out the 1953-54 regular season with a 71-41 slaughter of York. It was the 19th victory in 20 starts for the Lions.

Edwardsville proved the master of Wood River in the top match of the night. The Tigers beat the Oilers 68-51 in a possible preview of next week's final of the Alton regional, where the teams are seeded one and two.

Mt. Vernon, Centralia Win

Quincy again had to struggle for victory, edging Collinsville 48-46. Quincy ends regular season play with a 20-2 record.

Rockford East, the state's No. 5 quiet, beat Aurora East 71-64, while 14th-ranked Rockford West whipped a good Elgin club 61-55.

Mount Vernon warmed up for its revenge game with Edwardsville tonight by slapping Murphysboro 61-47. Centralia topped East St. Louis 69-55.

Peoria Central, 55-37 winner over Springfield, can create a four-way tie for the Big 12 conference title by beating Streator tonight. Decatur, smashing Urbana 77-44, Lincoln, which humbled Pekin 57-41, and Danville already have won shares of the conference laurels.

De Kalb upset Princeton, 65-53, in one of the night's biggest surprises. Dixon squeezed by Mendota 69-66 and Monmouth scored an amazingly easy victory over East Moline in other games.

Bevo's Injured Ankle Forces Postponement Of Two Games

RIO GRANDE, Ohio (AP)—Rio Grande college basketball Coach New Oliver said today Clarence (Bevo) Francis would be well enough next week to try to set a national free throw record in the Ohio playoffs of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics.

Oliver said Bevo, whose injured ankle forced postponement of two weekend games, definitely would be well enough to play against Central State in the opening tournament round at the Cleveland Arena Wednesday night.

Eagles Lose To Metropolis In Final Game

Eldorado's Eagles travelled to Metropolis last night and came back with a 62-54 defeat. This was the third meeting of the year between the two clubs, Eldorado winning the first two.

Metropolis hopped out in front and held the advantage at the end of every period, 19-14, 30-28, 45-33 and the final count of 62-54.

Eleven Eagles saw action with five of the regulars leaving the game via the foul line. Metropolis used ten players and three fouled out.

This was the final game of the regular season for both schools, who will enter the regional tournament competition next week. Eldorado is in the Mt. Vernon regional and meets Shawneetown, winner of the Ridgway district.

Eldorado won the preliminary game, 54-48.

Carl Erickson Named Athletic Director at SIU

CARBONDALE, Ill. — Carl E. Erickson, Boston university football star of the early 40's, was named director of athletics at Southern Illinois university Friday, and three other major appointments were made in physical education.

Erickson, 35, replaces Glenn "Abe" Martin, a coach at Southern for 15 years and athletic director since 1944. Martin who requested that he be relieved last year as director, was appointed head of men's intramurals, a new position carrying full responsibility for organizing and developing men's intramural athletics and for handling a campus recreational program for the informal use of students and faculty members.

The board also voted to establish within the SIU College of Education a department of recreation and outdoor education, with William H. Freeburg, associate professor of outdoor education, as department chairman. The department will be activated July 1.

The program has three aspects: the offering of courses in recreation and outdoor education, development of a camping program for the University and its students, and development of a service program for various public and private organizations interested in sound programs of outdoor recreation.

The SIU board of trustees approved the appointment of Erickson, effective July 1, 1954.

At the same time, the board named Edward J. Shea, former director of athletics at Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., as chairman of the Men's physical education department. Cecil C. Franklin has been acting in that capacity but had asked for a replacement in order to do graduate research.

William F. O'Brien will continue as football coach at Southern, Lynn Holder as basketball mentor, and Martin will retain his post as baseball coach. During his long career at SIU, Martin served as football coach for 10 years, beginning in 1929, and for three years as basketball coach, 1943-46.

Erickson will hold the title of associate professor of men's physical education and head of intercollegiate athletics. Shea, the other new appointee, expects to win his doctor's degree at Boston University before August. He will take over his assignments at SIU immediately.

Shea, 39, was graduated from Springfield, Mass., College and received post-graduate training at Emory University, Atlanta, Ga., where he also served as instructor. He formerly was director of athletics at the Atlanta Athletic Club and director of athletics and physical education at Phillips Academy. During World War II, he was director of warfare aquatics of the Navy V-12 unit at Emory University.

Maglie, Blasted by Durocher, is Detained at Home by Father's Illness

By United Press
Sal Maglie, blasted by Leo Durocher because he wasn't the first player to report to the New York Giants' spring training base, was detained at his Niagara Falls, N. Y., home, the United Press learned today, because of a heart attack suffered by his 73-year old father.

The 37-year old curveball artist, eager to attempt a comeback after last year's disappointing season, was scheduled to leave late today for the Giants' camp at Phoenix, Ariz.

Durocher, apparently unaware of Maglie's personal worries, took the veteran right-hander over the coals in a blistering monologue Friday. He said Maglie should have been the first player to report, issued a stern warning that Sal "would have to fight for his job" and barked "I'm not going to have pitchers on this club who won't pitch."

The Philadelphia Phillies, meanwhile, finally reached an understanding with 23-game winner Rob in Roberts, the big pitcher coming to terms for an estimated $42,000. He expects to join his teammates at Clearwater, Fla., next Monday.

Other clubs continued to cut down on their holdout lists as Bob Feller, embarking on his 16th big league campaign, signed with the Cleveland Indians for $30,000 and 21-game winner Mel Parnell, who shut out the Yankees four times last year, signed with the Boston Red Sox for approximately $30,000.

Whitey Ford Signs Yankee Contract

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Whitey Ford, who led the Yankee pitching staff last year with 18 victories, came to terms for the 1954 season today for a substantial increase in salary.

The young left-hander who lost only six games signed for about $20,000, an increase of about $8,000 over last season's salary. He was the last of the Yankee regular pitchers to sign and immediately went to work with the team.

The Prayer Mama didn't hear

Mama always hears my prayers.
But last night I said a special prayer, after Mama turned out the light.
I said, "Dear God, please don't let my Mama and Daddy get one of those divorces, like Jimmy's Mama and Daddy are going to get."
Jimmy is the little boy who sits next to me in Sunday School. I've never seen his Mama and Daddy — Jimmy always comes alone.
I guess it's not so much fun to come to the Church
all by yourself.
Tonight, after Mama turns out the light, I'm going to say "Dear God, tell Jimmy's Mama and Daddy to come to Church with him INSTEAD. . . ."

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values.
Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are (1)
For his own sake. (2) For the children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) which needs his moral and matterial support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.
For many years I have been interested in comparing what have seemed to me parallel passages in the Old and New Testaments.

When, for instance, I read the conclusion of the Ninetieth Psalm, which rises to a great climax of faith after an expression of human moods of frustration, I like to turn to the passage that climaxes Paul's chapter concerning the Resurrection in Corinthians 15.
Note the parallelism of hope, faith and triumph as we set these passages side by side:

Psalm 90:16,17: "Let Thy work appear unto Thy servants, and Thy glory unto their children. And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us: and establish Thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish Thou it."

And here is 1 Corinthians 15:58:
"Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, for as much as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord."

There are other striking parallels, as between passages in the prophecy of Amos and the words of Jesus on social wrongs, in Matthew 23.

But perhaps the most impressive of all is the parallel of the Shepherd Psalm 23 with Christ's description of Himself as the Good Shepherd in John 10:1-18.

To the beauty of the Shepherd of the Psalm as a bountiful giver, leader, guide and comforter, even in the passage through the valley of the shadow of death, is added the sacrificial note of the Good Shepherd comforting others in death and giving His life for the sheep.

I think it is this that enforces so strongly one's sense of the unique nature and mission of Jesus. Claims of divinity, touched with boastfulness, only evoke deep repulsion; but there is no such reaction to the Master's self-description.

He is, indeed, the Good Shepherd, claiming only to live and serve His fellowmen; a Shepherd of sheep, willing to die that others might live.

The picture of the Good Shepherd has been enriched in legend and in art, but no enrichment has equaled what is here in Our Lord's original words.

Here is the full description of the Shepherd—the Good Shepherd actually laying down His life. Even as Jesus spoke these words, the shadow of the Cross was upon Him. The Shepherd Song of Psalm 23, lit touched with tragedy, was soon to be touched with glory.
